IEEE PELS Graduate Studies Fellowship and IEEE PELS John G. Kassakian Fellowship

The purpose of the IEEE PELS Graduate Studies Fellowship and IEEE PELS John G. Kassakian Fellowship are awarded to promote, recognize, and support eligible students with a master's degree or equivalent pursuing a higher-level graduate degree within the IEEE Power Electronics Society’s fields of interest.

One of the Fellowships is awarded as IEEE PELS John G. Kassakian Fellowship, named in honor of Prof. John G. Kassakian, the 2nd president of the Council and subsequently the founding president of the IEEE Power Electronics Society. This fellowship is reserved for the highest-ranked winner.

The fellowship is funded by the IEEE Power Electronics Society and Future Workforce Fund of the IEEE Foundation.

Schedule
Nomination Deadline: 31 August 2023

Eligibility
- Member, Graduate Student Member or Student Member for both IEEE & PELS
- Students with a Master's degree or equivalent pursuing an advanced doctoral/PhD degree within the PELS fields of interest
- Continue the studies at the home university with the same faculty advisor for the twelve months after receipt of the fellowship

Nomination Requirements
IEEE PELS solicits nominations for this fellowship
Only electronic submission of the nomination as indicated on PELS website is accepted.

Prize
- Multiple awards (up to 7) of $5,000 and certificates are given annually.
- $1,000 will be reimbursed towards necessary conference registration, travel and accommodations cost incurred to attend the award ceremony
- Complimentary IEEE and PELS membership in the following year.

Presentation of Awards
A certificate and monetary award of $5,000 will be presented at the IEEE Energy Conversion Congress and Exposition (ECCE 2023), 29 October – 2 November 2023, Nashville, Tennessee, USA.

To submit your nomination please: Visit the nomination portal.

Please contact pels-awards@ieee.org if you have any questions about this award or the IEEE PELS Awards process.